Conf
Pam
30
#66

Duke University Libraries
To the farmers
Conf Pam q#66
D99061067

TO THE FARMERS OF

Buckingham, Appomattox, Campbell, Bedford, Amherst, Nelson, and Albemarle.

THE undersigned, Capt. and A. Q. M., has been directed to establish his Head-quarters in the CITY OF LYNCHBURG, for the purpose of procuring a Large Supply of Corn and Long Forage for the use of the Confederate Service,

And has had assigned him the counties aforesaid from which to draw the needed supplies. He appeals, with great confidence, to the patriots of these counties to come forward, immediately, and deliver to him, at his Store-house, in this City, or at such points on the Railroad or Canal, leading to this City, as may be agreed on.

All their surplus Corn, Oats, Hay, Shucks, &c., at the Liberal Prices authorized to be paid.

☞ Bags for Grain and Baleing Presses for Forage, can be supplied as needed.

JNO. W. WOODSON,
Capt. and A. Q. M.

Lynchburg, June 2d, 1862.

Office over Citizens Savings Bank

2 40	2 40	2 35	1 30	1 30	1 25	1 25	1 20	1
2 40	2 35	1 30	1 30	1 25	1 25	1 20	1
2 35	1 30	1 30	1 25	1 25	1 20	1
1 30	1 30	1 25	1 25	1 20	1
1 30	1 25	1 25	1 20	1
1 25	1 25	1 20	1
1 25	1 20	1
1 20	1
1

☞To and from Petersburg and City Point, the rates are same as Richmond Rates.

STAUNTON LINE.

From	Richmond	to	Beaver Dam, 20.2
"	"	"	Gordonsville, 25.2
"	"	"	Louisa C. H., 25.2
"	"	"	Charlottsville 25.2
"	"	"	Waynesboro' 30.2
"	"	"	Staunton, 30.2

1 Alum, Hot, Warm, Healing, and Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs—

d Sulphur, Salt Sulphur, and Old Sweet Springs—mailed in Lynchburg.
moke Red Sulphur Springs—mailed in Salem.
d at Bonsack's.
; and Yellow Sulphur Springs—mailed in Christiansburg.
rings—mailed in Wytheville.

Permalife•
pH 8.5